

MRS. HUNT FINDS MANY AFFINITIES

Search for Evidence Against Late Husband Leads to Discoveries.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, July 8.—The fact that Mrs. Bessie Hunt, widow of John Wright Hunt, the turpentine magnate, has found more affinities to pray here to-day, although her husband's search for them did not lead out during her endeavor to have the divorce case of 1910 reopened during the hearing of the petition for reopening in Brooklyn yesterday. By a chance meeting with Henry R. Caldwell, a magazine writer, Mrs. Hunt learned that her former husband, who was worth $2,000,000, had several surreptitious love affairs. She immediately set about to seek evidence to prove this, and she learned that the statement is true. She secured an affidavit from Mrs. Bessie Carter, of this city, that she had occupied a suite with Mr. Hunt at the Hotel Cecil in London. Mrs. Carter then told Mrs. Hunt that another affinity who had succeeded her when she had thrown the turpentine operator over, through sheer boredom.

The second one was an English girl, and Mrs. Hunt hurried to London to look her up, only to find that the woman was living at a hotel in New York. She found her, and finally prevailed upon her to sign a similar affidavit, but when the time came for the making of the signature, affinity No. 2 disappeared, and Mrs. Hunt has failed to find her. But through affinity No. 3, Mrs. Hunt discovered another, and affinity No. 4 put her on the trail of No. 4. The lawyers now say they have enough evidence to show that Mr. Hunt secured his divorce through perjured testimony, and by this means they hope to secure for Mrs. Hunt a large portion, if not all, of her husband's estate.

MOTORISTS MAY RUN AWAY

New York Law Forbidding It Is Declared Unconstitutional.

New York, July 8.—The state law that makes it a felony for an automobile to run away from the scene of an accident without disclosing its identity, is unconstitutional in the view of the appellate division of the Supreme Court, which has decided to become a witness against itself. The court thus held yesterday in sustaining the demurrer of Edward T. Rosenheimer, a wealthy manufacturer, to an indictment found under that law. Rosenheimer killed a girl and gravely injured two others, and some time ago by running his automobile into their buggy. He was tried for manslaughter and acquitted.

WHEAT PLUNGER PENNILESS.

Former Ohio Banker and Ex-Convict Now in Jail.

New York, July 8.—Edward L. Harper, who tried to corner the Chicago wheat market in 1887, lost $5,000,000 in twenty minutes and incidentally carried down to wreck the Fidelity Bank of Cincinnati, of which he was president, and which he was sent to the Ohio Penitentiary for ten years, has no income, and his shirt studs and cuff buttons are in pawn. These facts were brought out here in the recent examination of Harper in supplementary proceedings on a judgment of $2774 obtained by Herman Cohen last November for money loaned. Harper is operating a company known as Harper & Son here, doing an iron and steel commission business, but he told the referee that the firm was not making any money, and that he had never had any income from it.

Consumption

Any one interested in the cure of Consumption should get one of the booklets telling the story of the use of Eckman's Alternative.

Saratoga, N. Y. Gentlemen: "For years I was troubled with cough and expectoration. My case was declared Consumption by my physician, and I was not expected to live. After I had been advised the use of Eckman's Alternative, which I took and was finally cured." (Signed affidavit) J. W. KANALY, fuller details of above case on request.

Eckman's Alternative is for Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Affections. For sale by Owens, Minor Drug Co. and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet of cured cases, and for Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

Another Attempt TO HOLD UP TRAIN.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Richmond, July 8.—Another attempt was made last night to hold up the train between Philadelphia and Richmond, according to the company's officials. About 9 o'clock last evening the railroad officials received information that a gang of men was on the track between the former city and the latter. The train was held up for some time, but the men were finally dispersed. The train was held up for some time, but the men were finally dispersed. The train was held up for some time, but the men were finally dispersed.

DAMAGE $150,000.

Damage Caused by Storm in Lee County, Ala.

Columbus, Ga., July 8.—The violent wind and hail storm which swept Lee county, Ala., July 4, caused damage estimated at $150,000, according to the report of Captain Hays, United States Army, who is in charge of the investigation. The damage was caused by the storm, which was the most severe in the history of the county. The damage was caused by the storm, which was the most severe in the history of the county.

AS AGENT OF JUSTICE.

Use of Bloodhound and Accuracy of Its "Findings" Upheld.

Tonka, Ka., July 8.—The Kansas Supreme court yesterday upheld the bloodhound as an agent of justice. If the blood has been proved accurate in following the trail of a criminal, the court said, it is as reliable as any other evidence. The decision came in the appeal of Glad Adams, convicted in November, 1910, in Grant county of the murder of Joseph Anderson, a farmer. Tracks about Anderson's home gave the bloodhound a good trail, and they followed it to the Adams home, where they found Adams. Adams was then arrested and charged with the murder. The court's decision was a victory for the bloodhound as a tool of justice.

OFFICERS INSTALLED BY PYTHIAN SISTERS.

Richmond Temple, No. 5, Pythian Sisters, has installed the following officers for the ensuing term:

Excellent Chief, Mrs. Julia M. Hill; Most Noble, Mrs. Virginia Leake; Junior, Mrs. Mattie Gill; Mistress of Records, Mrs. Cora L. Hill; Secretary, Mrs. Ruth V. Payne; Mistress of Finance, Mrs. Rose W. Silver; Protector, Miss Mary McManis; Miss May Lowe.

The temple presented a pin of the order to Mrs. B. W. Silver for bringing in the largest number of members in the past term. Mrs. Hill, of Hill City Temple, No. 1, Lynchburg, was present and gave the temple a very interesting talk.

"I testify with pleasure to the Merits of Warner's Safe Cure"

Mrs. T. J. Faughy, Little, Mich.

Just one of the many thousands of indorsements during the past 34 years.

Every and overwork all unite to inflame the human system, long trails of suffering and disease. Invariably the kidneys are the first to be affected, on account of their delicacy of construction and the work of filtering out the impurities from the blood.

As a preventative and cure use

Warner's Safe Cure

It is a physician's prescription and the standard for kidney, liver and bladder diseases.

It is absolutely pure, made from medicinal plants and herbs—is agreeable to the taste and can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

Ask Your Druggist.

Two Sizes 50c and $1.00.

Free sample bottle to any one mentioning the Richmond Sunday Times-Dispatch and writing Warner's Safe Cure Co., Rochester, N. Y.

ARMS CONCEALED IN WINE BARRELS

San Salvador, Republic of Salvador, July 8.—Dr. Carlos Francisco Dardano, who was arrested on July 1 on charges of conspiracy against the government, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

Dr. Dardano, who is now in the hands of the authorities, has confessed that he brought arms into the country in wine barrels.

ELY'S RICHES ARE LEFT TO CHARITY

New York, July 8.—Almost the entire fortune of the late Smith Ely, former Mayor of New York, has been left to charity, according to his will, made public today. Mr. Ely died last week, and his estate is estimated at $1,000,000.

Chief among the beneficiaries are the American Sunday School and the National United Charities, to each of which is bequeathed $100,000. Mr. Ely also directed that $50,000 be set aside to start a fund to enable juvenile offenders against the law to get a start in the world.

The Orange (N. J.) Memorial Hospital and the Memorial Hospital of Morristown, N. J., are also given substantial legacies. Relatives who made the will public announced it would be filed for probate on July 17.

ELKS LEAVE TO-DAY

Richmond Lodge to Make Hard Fight to Retain National Home.

To lend their influence and present Virginia's claim with other delegations from this State to keep the National Elks' Home at Richmond, about 150 members of Richmond Lodge No. 45, B. P. O. E., will leave Elba Station this morning at 9:30 o'clock aboard a special train for Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railway for Atlantic City, to attend the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge.

Richmond and other Virginia Elks feel a keen interest in this year's meeting, for the proposition to move the National Home from the Southern part of the Old Dominion will be acted upon. The Virginians are not at all sanguine about the outcome of their mission, but they are determined, if possible, to prevent any change in the location of the institution.

Richmond is sending an unusually large delegation to the convention. The lodge has had handsome robes, finished in rose gold. They bear the number of the lodge, and upon it is embossed a picture of the Capitol building, and they will be worn by each member at the New Jersey resort.

The convention will continue through this week.

BIG FOREST FIRE BEYOND CONTROL

Kinoe, Me., July 8.—The big forest fire in the French town district was still burning fiercely today, and was beyond the control of the 250 men fighting it. It has climbed the side of Lilly Bay Mountain, and already the flames have spread over 3,500 acres, and the loss is being estimated at between $50,000 and $100,000.

Three fire-fighters were nearly surrounded by flames, and were rescued with difficulty. Threatening fires were reported burning near Lake Umbagog, Spencer Narrows, and west of Seabrook.

LABOR LEADER UNDER ARREST

Head of Railroad Employees Charged With Using Mails to Defraud.

Boston, July 8.—Robert P. Neil, president of the International Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, was arrested to-night on a charge of using the United States mails in a scheme to defraud.

It is alleged that Neil, on December 1, 1910, issued circulars soliciting the aid of members of the railroad employees' union in the purchase of a large quantity of goods, which were to be sold at a profit to the union.

Members of Neil's family furnished bail in the sum of $1,000 and he was released.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO HOLD UP TRAIN

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Richmond, July 8.—Another attempt was made last night to hold up the train between Philadelphia and Richmond, according to the company's officials. About 9 o'clock last evening the railroad officials received information that a gang of men was on the track between the former city and the latter.

FULL MEASURE AFTER AUGUST 1

New York, July 8.—Notice was served today upon the commission merchants of New York and the farmers of New Jersey, Virginia and North Carolina, with whom they deal, that on and after August 1 a full measure of wheat must be used.

It is represented to be, at least so far as weight and measure are concerned, a full measure. The notice was served by the United States marshal at New York.

Joseph Chamberlain 75 Years Old

Birmingham, England, July 8.—Joseph Chamberlain celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday at his home, Highbury, to-day. The veteran statesman was the recipient of world-wide congratulations. His health is fairly good, the improvement noted upon his return from the Riviera being maintained.

Machines Will Not Work

Baltimore, Md., July 8.—Antony Jannus, the Washington aviator, could not get a Brown hydroplane to work properly this afternoon and was forced to abandon a scheduled flight from Baltimore to Annapolis and return over water. The machine fell into the river three times, but Jannus was unharmed.

Receives Red Cross Medal

Newport, R. I., July 8.—For his services in connection with the relief work of the American Red Cross, following the earthquake in Sicily several years ago, Whitney Collins, chief caretaker's mate, attached to the local naval training station, was to-day presented with a Red Cross medal, the gift of the Italian government.

Crushed to Death

Portsmouth, R. I., July 8.—Caught beneath a falling boulder, weighing nearly 2,000 pounds, Joseph Murphy and Robert Shotton, miners employed at the mine of the Rhode Island Coal Company, were instantly killed to-day. Murphy was killed here, and Shotton from Southside, Pa., and Shotton from Olyphant, Pa.

Tried to Rob Store

An attempt was made early this morning by three young men to enter the book and news store of Joseph Greiner, 112 East Main Street. They succeeded in forcing the door, but were frightened away without doing further damage. Report of the matter was made to the Second Police Station.

DEMAND The Flour That Gives Universal Satisfaction.

Dunlop Flour

The Flour That Gives Universal Satisfaction.

Dunlop Flour

The Flour That Gives Universal Satisfaction.

Dunlop Flour

The Flour That Gives Universal Satisfaction.

Dun